FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Hi everyone - TCS gets better and better!

Congratulations to Kenny Thurbon, our very own Trangie Artist

Congratulations from all of us at TCS, we are very proud of your wonderful work. This demonstrates how talent, combined with dedication and hard work is such a powerful combination. (Photo from the Narromine News)

Taking his inspiration from nature, Kenny is not afraid to experiment using sticks and gum leaves dipped in paint to create different sized dots for his dot paintings

Congratulations to Mr & Mrs Van Staden

This year our holidays had a wonderful beginning as we travelled to Branxton to witness the marriage of Miss Aimee Wall to her fiancée JF Van Staden. The wedding took place in a beautiful, historic church in Branxton filled with Aimee and JF's friends and family followed by a reception in a lovely rural setting.

The weather was lovely, the singing in the church beautiful and the speeches at the reception hilarious. The day was perfect and everyone at TCS wishes Aimee and JF a long and happy life together.

THANKYOU

On Thursday 11th April Trangie Lions Club welcomed our District Governor and his wife, Gavan and Jenny Ellis. It is always interesting to speak to members of other clubs and hear what contribution they are making to their own communities.

Mrs Ellis, an ex-teacher and I were happy to 'talk shop' as teachers always seem to do and it appeared, coincidentally that she used to teach my daughter-in-law in Bathurst before she retired.

Mrs Ellis, when she was teaching, was a school librarian with a belief that she and I shared, in the importance of children having access to books. She is now involved in a project called 123READ2ME which provides books to children free of charge. Mrs Bradbury and her husband called by in Trangie a week later and dropped off boxes containing around 100 books catering for primary children from K-6 both fiction and non-fiction. We would like to extend a BIG Trangie Central School THANKYOU to the Lions Club for this thoughtful and wonderful gift.

Head Teachers' Report

'The Nest' is Up and Running!

Wellbeing is at the front of everything we do at Trangie Central School. We are proud to announce that we are now servicing our students from The Nest (the old Principal's residence). For the past 12 months, we have worked hard to establish the building and find services that cater to the needs of our students and their families. In Term One we completed an online survey through our school Face Book page that saw 101 responses. The following five top issues were listed as affecting our students and their families' wellbeing.

1. Smoking
2. Mental Illness
3. Bullying
4. Alcohol Use
5. Drug Use

We would like to thank everyone for having a say as this allows us to target the services needed for what you believe are the major issues. In response to this the Wellbeing Team at Trangie Central School have engaged with The Royal Flying Doctors who have committed to supplying an Alcohol and Other Dugs Clinical Support Worker who will sit in 'The Nest' every Wednesday during the school term from 10am-3pm. This outreach program can provide 1:1 face-to-face counselling, Youth drop in Support, and group sessions on early intervention. We are also lucky enough to have Ursula Ryan who will be implementing the "Positive Lifestyle Program" which looks at the following issues with our Stage 6 students.

- Self-awareness
- Anger
- Depression and loneliness
- Stress
- Grief and Loss
- Assertiveness
- Self Esteem
- Future Directions

Over the course of the term, we will keep students and families up to date with the progression of The Nest and what services will be available and when. We are working hard to bring in more outreach services, which are also offered to our students' families who attend Trangie Central School. If you wish to make an appointment please contact our front office.

Literacy at TCS

This week we're kicking off a renewed focus on literacy in the secondary school. All teachers of all subjects are working together to boost our students' literacy skills and understanding in order to increase achievement across the board. We know that strong literacy skills assist everyone in communicating clearly, deepening their understanding of what they read, and improving engagement in the world around them. This is important for us all, and we all want our young people to be able to participate in their community, the workforce, and their lives as fully as possible.

As such, we're kicking off a number of initiatives and strategies across the school to work on this, and we hope you will support them at home as well, by talking with your child/ren about what's happening in literacy at school. With your support, we will see our students' confidence and achievement in reading and writing skyrocket.

SENTENCE PUNCTUATION

Every sentence should include at least a capital letter at the start, and a full stop, exclamation mark or question mark at the end. This basic system indicates that the sentence is complete.

CAPITAL LETTER

FULL STOP

A FULL STOP SHOULD ALWAYS BE USED TO END A SENTENCE.

THE FULL STOP INDICATES THAT A POINT HAS BEEN MADE AND THAT YOU ARE ABOUT TO MOVE ON TO FURTHER EXPLANATIONS OR A RELATED POINT.

EXCLAMATION MARK

AN EXCLAMATION MARK INDICATES STRONG FEELING
WITHIN A SENTENCE, SUCH AS FEAR, ANGER OR LOVE.

QUESTION MARK

IT ALWAYS COMES
AT THE END OF A SENTENCE

THE QUESTION MARK SIMPLY INDICATES THAT A SENTENCE IS ASKING A QUESTION.

Remember:

Sentences are the building blocks of writing.
They are complete statements.

Fortnight Focus

Each fortnight we will be paying particular attention to one small aspect of literacy, beginning with accurate and consistent use of punctuation. This fortnight we are starting at the very beginning: sentence punctuation. We expect every student to begin every sentence (in every subject!) with a capital letter, and to end them with a full stop or, if appropriate, an exclamation mark or question mark.

We will then build from there, continuing to expect that same accuracy with sentence punctuation while adding in another element of accurate writing. From little things, big things grow!

IT'S ALL

GREEK

TO ME

A common
English prefix is anti-

meaning against or opposite

How many words can you come up with?

antibiotic

antibody

antiseptic

Use them in a sentence for additional entries in the draw

According to one estimate, more than 150,000 words of English are derived from Greek words.
These include technical and scientific terms but also more common words like antisocial.

Weekly Competition

Greek and Latin words (or roots) form the basis of a staggering proportion of English words, most of the time without us noticing it. This term, we will have a new Greek root each week for students to think of as many English words as they can that contain that root, and to use at least one of them in a complete sentence. We will have a random draw at each Monday assembly for a small prize. Competition entry forms can be collected from and returned to the Library.

This week we're looking at anti, the Greek term for 'against' or 'opposite'. I'm sure our students can think of many things that they are opposed to! They could potentially get quite creative with this one... The goal for this is not to use a dictionary to come up with the most words, but to think of our own language, and chat to family and friends to try and think of more, and a creative way to put them in a sentence.

Assistant Principals' Report

Fantastic End to the Term!

We celebrated the end to a lovely first term with a couple of great events. The first was the Easter Hat Parade organised by Miss Druce. The children all made their own Easter hats in class time. They used materials like cardboard, sticky tape, paint, cotton wool and pipe cleaners to create some really sensational hats. The fact that they were all so unique added much interest to the parade. Thank you to the many families who were able to come along and share in this event with their children.

On the very last Friday afternoon of term the students participated in a RAM Rewards Day. This is a chance to celebrate all of the positive behaviour and attitudes demonstrated by our students throughout the term. Students receive RAMS tickets for displaying behaviours that we like at school and in society. Examples include using polite manners, sharing, helping others, taking care of our things and being organised.

The Year 4/5 class organised a tabloid sports event for the Primary school. The children worked in pairs to think up a tabloid event. They gathered the equipment needed, made signs and rules for their event and then ran the event on the afternoon. The children displayed some excellent leadership qualities and were proud of how their events ran. Also, a big thank you to the Year 6 students who were teamed up with their Kinder buddies and helped them in the events. It certainly seemed like a fun way to end the term together.

Academic Competitions

This term we have a few academic competitions available for our Years 3-6 students. All children are encouraged to be involved. Extra practice at home will also enhance your child's ability to succeed. It's the same with anything....if you want to be a strong swimmer you go to swimming training, if you want to ride in Pony Club you ride your horse each afternoon, if you want to play an instrument well you practise.

YOUR child can achieve great things with work and effort!

- CWA Public speaking competition.
Year 3/4 topics; Who was here 1st? / I can't reach / It wasn't my idea
Year 5/6 topics; Don't mention it / Dreaming / Our poor ocean
* 2 minute time limit
- CWA Research poster project. Country - New Guinea. Due by end of term.
- Premier's Spelling Bee – words available now. Competition in Term 3.

Book Donations

During the school holidays, we were very fortunate to receive a donation of 100 Primary Books for our students to take home. The Governor of our Lions Club for this region dropped in to see Mrs Holden during the holidays and brought the special delivery of books. It's part of a 'Books for Kids' initiative run by the Lion's Club. The books are a mixture of fiction and non-fiction and our students were extremely excited to have a new book to take home. Such a thoughtful gesture aimed to address the disadvantage of children who report to have no books in their homes.
